

July 2024 ARTS News!

Our new membership year begins in July. Time to renew your CVAC membership. Thank you for your support. Community donations make the ARTS come alive in our local schools. See the results of CVAC mini-grants in Jacks Valley and Zephyr Cove Elementary Schools below. We are currently planning next season's concerts and need your help. Carson Valley Arts Council is currently looking for sponsors for 2024-25! Contact our office or look on our website for sponsorship opportunities.

Last call for artists!! The 4th Annual Carson Valley Art Studio Tour applications close July 22.

Community arts projects only happen if the Carson Valley Arts Council has volunteers to help plan and carry out the projects. You don't have to be an artist to volunteer. There is something for everyone! Call the CVAC office or check out our website.

YOU can join your neighbors and friends to support the arts in Carson Valley with your membership in the Carson Valley Arts Council. Visit our website or call our office or stop by for membership information and form.

JANICE STOWERS AND RETA HANKS FEATURED ARTISTS AT THE COPELAND GALLERY

Carson Valley Arts Council (CVAC) presents local glass artist Janice Stowers and watercolor artist Reta Hanks at the Copeland Gallery in Minden from July 2 through August 30, 2024.

Janice Stowers

Janice has had a love for Art Glass for many years. Touring glass blowing facilities in Germany and Switzerland fueled her infatuation with the medium. In 2003 she participated in a glass fusing class in Reno, not realizing she would become totally obsessed with the idea of creating her own designs.

Reta Hanks

One of Reta's favorite pass times is painting, and her favorite medium is watercolor. Watercolor takes on a life of its own and tends to create a unique result on paper. I like painting landscapes and I also like to dream up whimsical colorful abstracts that may include pen and ink. I hope to spark the viewer's imagination. I also enjoy using oils and a palette knife, no brushes, to create small brightly colored paintings. This technique produces lots of interesting texture.

Janice and Reta's exhibit can be viewed Monday through Saturday 10 am to 5 pm. Their work will be available for purchase.

CVAC will host an artist's reception for Janice and Reta on Saturday, July 13 from 1 pm until 3 pm. The reception is free and open to the public. Come and meet Janice and Reta.

Feel free to contact us for additional information or questions by calling the Carson Valley Arts Council office at 782-8207. Visit our website at www.cvartscouncil.com to learn more about CVAC and upcoming events. The Copeland Gallery is located at 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden (corner of Hwy 395 and County Road).

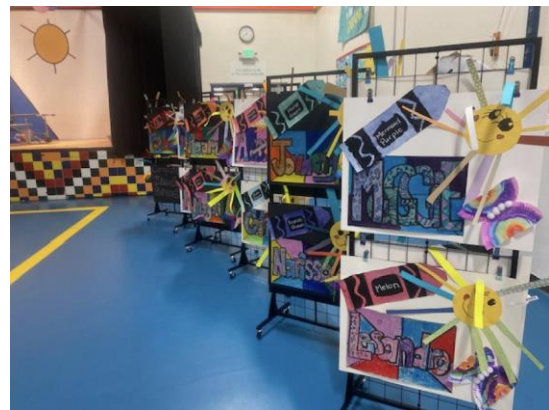

The fourth grade class at Zephyr Cove Elementary put on performances of 2 plays: "The Hunt for Medusa" and "King Midas and the Golden Touch" for the 1st through 5th grade students. Their teacher, Keely O Donnell used the mini-grant funds from the Carson Valley Arts Council to purchase and make Greek costumes and some props for the plays.

SPONSORS NEEDED!! Time to become a sponsor for Carson Valley Arts Council events and concerts for 2024-25 season. Your business's name and logo can be in every concert program, on the CVAC website and promotions. It takes volunteers and sponsors and community support to make everything happen. An individual or a business or organization can become a member or sponsor for Carson Valley Arts Council concerts, arts outreach at schools, art exhibits, mini-grants for arts teachers, or community arts events.

Call our office for more information or visit our website at www.cvartscouncil.com

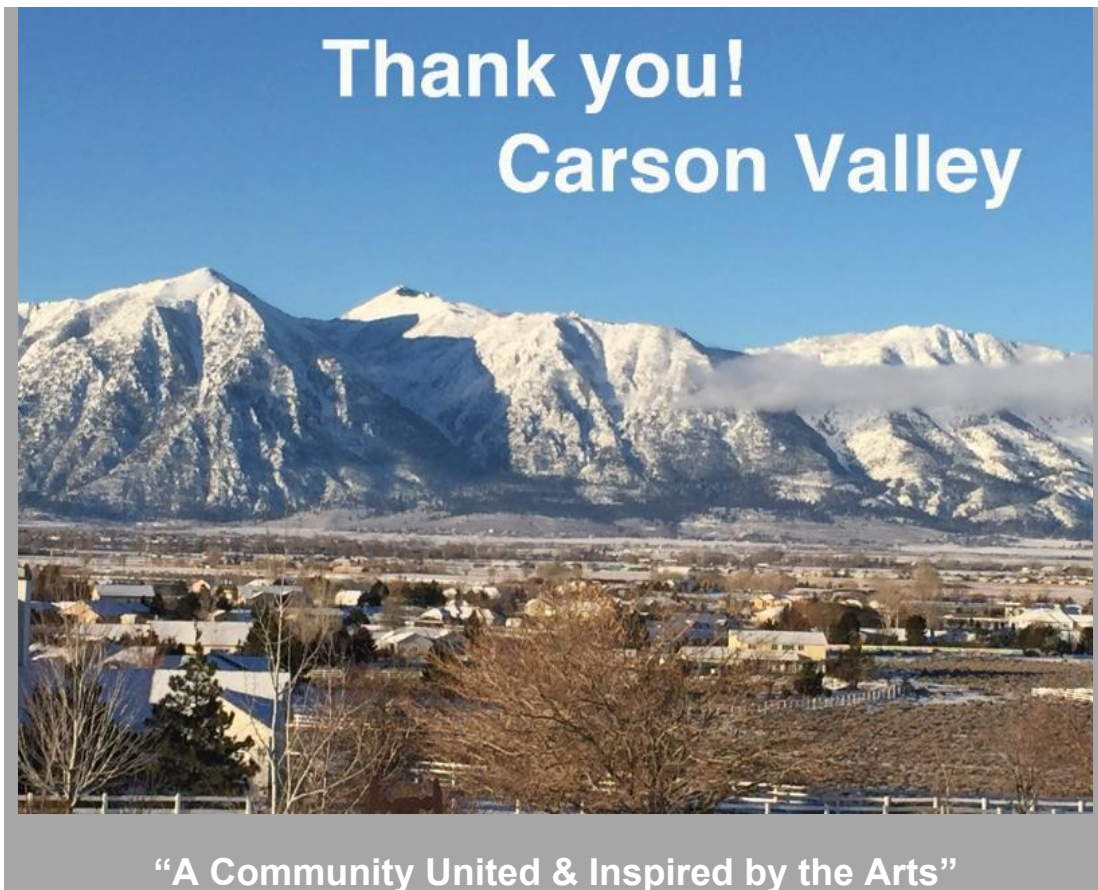

Your donations and support make a difference. Art students at Jacks Valley Elementary are able to display their works of art due to Carson Valley Arts Council's mini-grant to teacher Liz Hastings. These new display racks make it easy to show off student art work all over the school. Special thanks to the Carson Valley Art Association for their support.

Thank you 2023-24 Sponsors and Supporters

Special thanks goes to our sponsors for the Concert Series and the Art Studio Tour. Please thank all of our sponsors and supporters for making the ARTS important in our community.
