Kaki King Kicks Off 2022-23 CVAC Concert Series Oct. 7

Guitarist Kaki King is known for a lot of things — her virtuosic technique, her experimental songwriting, her idiosyncratic sound and her futuristic multimedia shows, just to name a few.

She's known for both her technical ability and the immersive, boundary-breaking quality of her music. Kaki King will perform at the CVIC Hall, 1602 Esmeralda in Minden, at 7 p.m. Friday, October 7, 2022.

She gets a lot of attention for her technique, which involves slapping the guitar, drumming her nails against it, and more. But the hard part is the songwriting. "When you're an instrumentalist, finding your voice is really hard," King said, "I want it to be identifiable as me."

Composer and musician Kaki King is considered one of the world's greatest living guitarists. Hailed by Rolling Stone as "a genre unto herself," Kaki has released 9 albums and toured extensively, presenting in such prestigious arts centers as the Kennedy Center, MoMA, LACMA, The Met and Smithsonian Design Museum. She has created music for numerous film and TV soundtracks, including "August Rush" and "Into the Wild", for which received a Golden Globe nomination for Best Original Score. She has performed with symphonies and chamber ensembles, and recorded an album in collaboration with the Porta Girevole Chamber Orchestra commissioned by the Berklee College of Music.

On October 7, 2022, King will perform songs from her most recent album, "Modern Yesterdays," as well as material from throughout her career.

Tickets are $20 members, $23 general audience, and kids under 18 are free with a paid adult ticket. Tickets are available at the Copeland Cultural Arts Center, 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden, online at www.cvartscouncil.com, and by phone at 775-782-8207. Tickets will also be available at the door for $25 if not sold out. For more information, visit www.cvartscouncil.com.

Plan an arts weekend getaway for the beautiful Carson Valley for Oct. 7-9, 2022. Fifteen Studios will be open Friday, Oct. 7, 2022 - 3 - 6 pm, Saturday, Oct. 8, 2022 - 10 AM - 4 PM and Sunday, Oct. 9, 2022 - 11 AM - 3 PM.

The 15 studios with 31 artists are featured on the 2nd annual free Carson Valley Art Studio Tour. Meet the artists, see their work and learn about their creative process. All artists will have their work for sale. Some of the studios included in the Tour are: watercolor artists Teri Sweeney and Tina Forkner, mixed media paintings and jewelry artist Pam Brekas, western watercolor artist Sheri Greves-Neilson, oil artist Barbara Gustafson, watercolor artists La Vonne Vasick, pottery artists Sharon Randall and Lorraine Felix, photographer Sue Woskow, watercolor and silk artist Lee Lewis, pastels, oils and sculpture artist Roger Kinnaman, photography and tintype artists Rielynn Lunde, and potter Michelle Mulligan. There will be three artists at the Carson Valley Historical Museum and four artists at the Gardnerville Station. Several studios have more than one artist, but all artists and their work are featured on the Tour website CVASTour.org.

The Tour website CVASTour.org includes an interactive online map and downloadable pdf file with the studios, galleries and information and art examples for individual artists. The website also includes a schedule of special demonstrations and music features. Visit 8 out of the 15 studios to become eligible to win free art. Printed maps will be available in late September at the Carson Valley Arts Council, 1572 U.S. Hwy 395 N # A, Minden, NV and participating galleries.

Special thanks go to the galleries and sponsors of the 2022 Carson Valley Art Studio Tour. The Carson Valley Arts Council is sponsoring the Tour and the first concert of their new series on Friday, Oct. 7 with Kaki King, guitarist extraordinaire. Concert tickets are available at the Carson Valley Arts Council website <https://www.cvartscouncil.com/2021-2022-concert-series/> or at their office at 1572 U.S. Hwy 395 N #A, Minden, NV 89423 or by calling (775) 782-8207.

2022-2023 Concert Lineup

Kaki King • Friday, October 7, 2022

Hailed by Rolling Stone as “a genre unto herself,” composer and innovative guitarist Kaki King is a true iconoclast with 9 albums. She has contributed to a variety of Film and TV soundtracks and played with icons like Foo Fighters and toured in Europe. CVIC Hall, Minden <http://www.kakiking.com>.

Nathan Aweau • Friday, November 11, 2022

Nathan brings Hawaiian music in a return visit to our valley, as an award winning singer, songwriter and guitarist with “Island Album of the Year,” “Song of the Year” and “Male Vocalist of the Year”. He performs regularly in Japan, Hawaii and across the mainland. New York Times says, “Nathan has an in-depth understanding of orchestration, and his singing style is effortless.” <http://www.nathanaweau.com>.

Jimbo Scott Band • Friday, February 10, 2023

Jimbo’s booming baritone voice takes you to the streets of Greenwich Village, to the hills of Scotland, down South through Memphis and back again to his hometown of Oakland, California. A regular at western music festivals, like Kate Wolf and Four Peaks Music Festivals, Jimbo Scott brings his “Honest Honey-Eyed Americana” music to Carson Valley. <http://www.jimboscottmusic.com>

David Jacobs-Strain and Bob Beach • Friday, March 10, 2023

David Jacobs-Strain is a slide-driven country blues player and song poet from Oregon. His deep love of blues and roots music is evident in every one of the songs he writes. David Jacobs-Strain and Bob Beach are a multi-generational duo who has been performing together since 2010. Http://www.davidjacobs-strain.com.

Alasdair Fraser & Natalie Haas • Friday, April 14, 2023

The musical partnership between consummate performer Alasdair Fraser, "the Michael Jordan of Scottish fiddling," and brilliant Californian cellist, Natalie Haas, spans the full spectrum between intimate chamber music and ecstatic dance energy.

Nathan Aweau Returns to the Carson Valley

The Carson Valley Arts Council will present multi-Nā Hōkū Hanohano award-winning musician Nathan Aweau, on Friday, November 11, 2022 at the CVIC Hall, 1602 Esmeralda in Minden, at 7 p.m.

Nathan is known for his beautiful vocals and his musical prowess, particularly on the bass guitar, his favorite instrument. His Bass Etude album won Jazz Album of the Year honors in 2005. Often described as a musician with an in-depth understanding of orchestration, Nathan is proficient in piano, guitar, 'ukulele, saxophone, percussion, and bass. He also writes, records, engineers, and produces his own material.

His traditional Hawaiian music features “leo ki’eki’e” (male falsetto singing), giving him a multi-octave range. For his six solo CDs, Nathan wrote and arranged every song, sang all vocals (including background), played every instrument, and recorded, engineered, mixed, and mastered it at his In My Bathroom Studios. Nathan, who was classically trained, has run the gamut of styles, playing in jazz, funk, country, even metal bands, and Hawaiian ensembles.

Tickets are $20 members, $24 General Audience, and kids under 18 are free with a paid adult ticket. Tickets are available at the Copeland Cultural Arts Center, 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden, online at www.cvartscouncil.com, and by phone at 775-782-8207. Tickets will also be available at the door for $25 if not sold out. For more information, visit www.cvartscouncil.com.
